

Course Code 400.1	Introduction to Ethics	Credit Hours: 00
------------------------------------	-------------------------------	-------------------------

Learning Outcomes:

To enable a student:

- a) Identify and comprehend traditional and current issues in ethics
- b) Define the main areas of ethical discourse
- c) Discuss theories of ethics technological and deontological
- d) Develop skills of critical ethical analysis of contemporary moral problems

Course Contents:

1. Introduction

- a) Meaning of ethics
- b) Importance of ethics
- c) Relativism and universalism ethics
- d) Moral and ethics
- e) Advantages and disadvantages
- f) Approaches of ethics

2. Ethics and Moral

- a) What is Moral?
- b) Difference between Moral and Society
- c) Important of Moral for Society
- d) Role of Ethics and Moral in Religion

3. Theories

- a) Social Contact Theory
- b) Utilitarianism
- c) Aristotle's Theory of Means
- d) Virtue Theory
- e) Kohlberg's Theory of the Stages of Moral

4. Application → Contemporary Moral Problems

- a) Death penalty
- b) Physician Assisted Suicide
- c) Premarital Sex
- d) Drug Control
- e) Abortion

5. Suggested Readings

- a) Baker Dan, (2018), Mere Morality, Pitch-Stone-Publishing, USA, NC
- b) Driver Julia, (2007), Ethics, The Fundament, New Jersey, Wiley Blackwell
- c) Singer, Peter, (2011), Ethics, Cambridge University Press, UK